BLACK

AWARENESS

WEEK

The theme of this year's Black Awareness Week was "Biography Illuminates the Black Experience." Our distinguished speaker for the first day was Miss Emma Darnell, Intergovernmental Programs Coordinator for the City of Atlanta.

On the final day for our Black Awareness Week, we had a student presentation of "The World is a Chetto," which depicted not only black history, but life today. This presentation was followed with selections by "The Tranquillos," followed by a jam session in which the audience participated.

The slavetrain

IN MEMORIAM

Vivian Denise Clark
Class of 1973

A PRAYER

Now I sit me down in school,
Where praying is against the rule,
For this great nation, under God,
Finds public mention of Him odd,
Any prayer a class recites,
Now violates the Bill of Rights,
Anytime my head I bow,
Become a Federal matter now,
Teach of stars, poles, and equator,
But make no mention of their creator,
Tell of experts in Denmark and Sweden,
But not a word of what Eve did in Eden,
The law is specific; the law is precise,
Prayer out loud in a public hall
Upsets non-believers in nothing at all.
In silence alone can no man meditate,
And if God should get any credit, Great!
The rule however has a gimmick in it,
And one has to finish in less than a minute,
So, all I ask is a second of quiet,
I feel like praying, maybe I'll try it,
If not, O God this plea I make,
If I should die in school my soul please take.

IN APPRECIATION

There is a member of the staff at this institution of learning, who most of all, deserves our appreciation. Our appreciation for caring, loving, and giving of her time, when it really isn't her job to do so. It is with tremendous personal pride and love, that the Resumé devotes these pages to an expression of our appreciation of Jeanetta B. Green.
